Lost Watch Starts Wholesale Slaying. Stopped by Broken Gun.

Vandergrift, Pa., April 24.-Enraged be cause he couldn't find his watch, Michael Uptic, 21, a farmhand, today killed Mrs. W. Spulski, wife of the farmer who employed him, as she lay fil' in bed, and probably fatally wounded two of Spulski's sons, 6 and 3 years old. He was prevented from shooting four other child-en when his revolver broke. He slashed the woman's throat from ear to ear with a razor and fired sev-eral shots into her body. Fear-stricken, the children remained in their mother's room for some time after the tragedy. Finally the 13-year-old daughter crept out and ran to a neighbor's home.

Chief of Police Walker formed a posse which captured Uptic two miles from Freeport. He told the police he intended to return later and kill Spulski and the other children.
